

Leave a Legacy: Support Wildlife Conservation in Your Will

At the Wildlife Center of the North Coast, we are dedicated to rescuing, rehabilitating, and releasing injured and orphaned wildlife, while also inspiring our community to value and protect the natural world. By including the Wildlife Center of the North Coast in your will or estate plan, you can help ensure the continued care and conservation of wildlife along the north Oregon Coast for generations to come.

Recognizing Your Generosity

Legacy donors are an integral part of our mission. We'd be honored to recognize your gift, but we also respect your preference for anonymity. Please let us know your wishes.

How Your Gift Will Make a Difference

Your legacy gift will:

- Provide critical care for injured and orphaned wildlife.
- Support education programs that foster a deeper connection with nature.
- Maintain and expand our facilities to better serve the region's wildlife.

Thank you for considering leaving a lasting legacy to protect and care for wildlife. Together, we can ensure that future generations will experience the joy and wonder of our natural world.
